

Please leave New Jersey's "Do not call" law alone. I am a real estate agent and have ways other than telephone to get clients. I think we also need to do something about the junk mail. It burdens the mail service and creates environmental problems.